

ABSTRACT. We examine the partition of a finite Coxeter group of type B into cells determined by a weight function L . The main objective of these notes is to reconcile Lusztig's description of constructible representations in this setting with conjectured combinatorial descriptions of cells.